SWEETS FOR YOUR SWEET

C'mon... it's one day out of the year. This February 14, unplug your vegetable steamer, skip the macrobiotic meal and tell your personal trainer he's got the day off. It's time to treat yourself (and your sweetheart) to some sugar. For starters, we recommend Finale of Cambridge, Massachusetts (see page 40), source of the delectable creations above: bittersweet-chocolate mousse layered with chocolate-buttermilk cake, accompanied by a napoleon of blackberry Cabernet sorbet. (We promise you won't hate yourself in the morning.)
